Form 314
(December 1987)

STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION 73.3535 OF THE
COMMISSION'S RULES

Applicant's failure to construct Station KTDZ-TV is a result of factors wholly beyond its control. In short, Applicant's inability to construct the Station was caused by multiple obstructions placed in its path by Columbia River Television, Inc., licensee of Station KPDX(TV) (Channel 49, Vancouver, Washington) ("Columbia River").

In September 1983, Applicant filed an application with the Multnomah County Planning Commission, seeking authorization to construct a television tower. The application contained a detailed description of the proposed construction, as well as an engineering and environmental showing. The application was supplemented on October 5, 1983.

On November 9, 1983, the Division of Planning and Development recommended approval of the application. A hearing was held by the County Commission on November 14, 1983, and a written order was issued the same day, unanimously approving the application. An appeal then was filed by Columbia River; the Board of County Commissioners agreed to hear two limited issues on appeal: hazards resulting from collapse, and use of a third position on the KPDX tower. The Board of County Commissioners held a formal hearing on January 17, 1984, at which time it made an oral decision to uphold the Planning Commission decision, approving the proposed construction. A written final order of the Board of County Commissioners was released on February 14, 1984.

On March 7, 1984, Columbia River filed a notice of intention to appeal the decision of the County Board. On March 19, 1984, Applicant filed a motion to dismiss and a memorandum in support of its motion to dismiss the notice of intention filed by Columbia River. On May 8, 1984, Columbia River filed its brief on the merits in a petition for review filed with the Land Use Board of Appeals of Oregon. On June 14, 1984, the Land Use Board of Appeals dismissed Columbia River's appeal, on the basis that the notice of intent to appeal had been untimely, as Applicant had demonstrated.

On July 2, 1984, Columbia River filed a petition for review with the Oregon Court of Appeals. Briefs were subsequently filed, and oral argument was held. On October 24, 1984, a decision was entered affirming the dismissal of the appeal. On December 7, 1984, an order was entered denying reconsideration.

On November 27, 1984, Columbia River filed a petition for review with the Oregon Supreme Court. Subsequently, briefs were filed and oral argument was held on March 6, 1985. On July 2, 1985, the Supreme Court of Oregon reversed the decision below and remanded the proceeding to the Land Use Board of Appeals on procedural grounds, finding that the notice of intent had been timely filed.

On August 1, 1985, the Land Use Board of Appeals issued a letter indicating that the case had been reversed and that it was awaiting return of the record. The record was returned to the Board on August 30, 1985. On September 6, 1985, the Board of Appeals issued an order vacating its prior decision and establishing briefing schedules. Subsequently, briefs were filed, and oral argument was held on October 15, 1985. A final decision from the Board was released on January 7, 1986, upholding approval of Applicant's proposed construction.

On January 24, 1986, Columbia River appealed the Board decision to the Oregon Court of Appeals. Oral argument was held on March 14, 1986, and a decision was rendered on April 9, 1986. The Court of Appeals upheld the decision below, without opinion, approving the proposed construction.

At that juncture, Columbia River was not entitled to appeal as of right to the Oregon Supreme Court, and would have had to petition the Court to review the case. Columbia River did not do so, and accordingly, the Board decision became final on May 15, 1986.

Until the Spring of 1986, therefore, Greater Portland's use of its proposed site was still under review in the State of Oregon, and as a practical matter, construction was precluded. Applicant submits that this tortuous history of local litigation, instituted solely by a neighboring station, constitutes events beyond licensee's control and brings this request under Section 73.3535(b) of the Commission's Rules.

BROADCAST INTERESTS AND STATEMENT OF
COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 73.3555(d)

National Minority TV, Inc. is a California nonprofit corporation organized on September 16, 1980 under the name Translator TV, Inc. It has had the same three officers and directors since its organizational meeting of September 19, 1980: Paul F. Crouch, P. Jane Duff and Phillip David Espinoza. Mrs. Duff is a Black female, and Mr. Espinoza is an Hispanic male.

Under its former name National Minority TV, Inc. submitted 15 low power television applications in the following markets: Columbus, Ohio, Ch. 50; Crestline, et al., California, Ch. 47; Dallas, Texas, Ch. 51; Rockford, Ill., Ch. 57; Houston, Texas, Ch. 56, Spokane, Washington, Ch. 57; Washington, D.C., Ch. 42; Fort Worth, Texas, Ch. 47; Las Vegas, Nevada, Ch. 51; San Antonio, Texas, Ch. 50; San Francisco, California, Ch. 51; San Bernardino, California, Ch. 60; St. Louis, Missouri, Ch. 50; Portland, Oregon, Ch. 57; and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Ch. 41. These applications have either been dismissed, or are awaiting lottery assignments. In each application, however, a minority enhancement credit was noted since two-thirds control of National Minority TV, Inc. (formerly Translator TV, Inc.) is in the hands of members from recognized minority groups.

Commission Rule 73.3555(d)(1) permits an ownership interest in up to 14 television facilities provided the licensee organization is minority-controlled. In this instance, while one of National Minority TV, Inc.'s principals, Paul F. Crouch, presently has an interest in 13 commercial television facilities (noncommercial facilities are not subject to the multiple ownership rule, Section 73.3555(f)), a majority of National Minority TV, Inc.'s directors are minorities, and it is therefore minority controlled and in compliance with rule 73.3555(d)(1). On June 15, 1987 the Commission determined that National Minority TV, Inc. was in compliance with Rule 73.3555(d) when it granted assignment application BAPCT-870203KF involving KMLM(TV), Odessa, Texas.

In addition to meeting the numerical limits for television ownership interest, National Minority TV, Inc. is also in compliance with the "national audience reach" standards contained in Rule 73.3555(d)(2). Specifically, based on Mr. Crouch's television involvements, the following national audience reach figures apply:¹

Accordingly, Mr. Crouch's involvement with National Minority TV, Inc. is in full compliance with Rule 73.3555(d)(2), and there is no multiple ownership bar to the instant assignment of KTDZ-TV, Portland, Oregon from Greater Portland Broadcasting Corporation to National Minority TV, Inc.

^{2/} No Arbitron figures available, these numbers are assumed based on population.

^{3/} Pursuant to Rule 73.3535(d)(3)(A) only 50% of the ADI percentage reach is attributable to UHF actual facilities. Accordingly, only an 8.59% national audience reach is attributable to Mr. Crouch
